GOVERNOR BALDWIN GRACES DEDICATION OF NEW ARMORY.
Accepts Handsome Structure in Name of the Commonwealth—Military Ball a Brilliant Function—Beautiful Gowns Worn by the Ladies.

January 31, 1913, will go down into history as one of the notable days in Willimantic's career. The dedication of the new state armory marked an event that in civic and military importance and social brilliancy that has not been equalled in the Thread City's prosperous, progressive and public spirited achievements. The splendid new armory, not surpassed by any one-company headquarters in the country, is the pride of Company L.

The dignity of the dedication ceremonies was given a striking setting by the beautiful and patriotic decorations of the armory and the magnificent ensemble of military and social folk.

Long before the hour arrived for the dedication exercises the boxes, floor seats and gallery were filled with several thousand of Willimantic townspeople, and many military and other guests from this state and other commonwealths.

With the well drilled and disciplined Company L, Lieut. Dondoro in command, presenting arms and Wheeler's American band playing Hail to the Chief, His Excellency, Governor Baldwin, entered the armory accompanied by Adjutant General Cole and Captain E. E. Carpenter of Company L, Mayor D. P. Dunn and the general committee.
Colonel Hickey and the staff officers of the First Infantry, and Colonel Dorsey and staff officers of the Coast Artillery corps, with the formal military ceremony.

Mayor Dunn presided during the dedication exercises and Rev. W. S.
Beard, pastor of the First Congregational church, offered prayer. Major J.
J. McMahon presented the armory to the governor.

In his acceptance of the keys in behalf of the state, Gov. Baldwin in a brief and elegant address emphasized the patriotic and civic purposes for which the new armory stood, and its relation to the military and good citizenship of the state. Gov. Baldwin then formally turned the keys over to Adjutant General Cole.

After these ceremonies Gov. Baldwin and his staff were escorted to their boxes, where they received, assisted by the reception committee.

Governor Leads Grand March.
The brilliant grand march followed, led by Gov. Baldwin and Mrs. E. E.
Carpenter, who were followed by the governor's staff and ladies, officers of Company L and ladies, and several hundred couples. The dance programme of 18 numbers was then in order, and music and social enjoyment were the climax to the brilliant event.

Military Guests.
Among the military and other guests attending the dedication were: Captain A. P. Woodward, Danielson; Lieut. W. Goodwin, 5th Infantry, U. S. A.; Maj. Purcell, Hartford; Mr.
McMahon, Hartford; Major Lamb, Hartford; Lieut. Hickey, Manchester; Lieut. Maurice, Hartford; Major and Mrs. Tyler, Hartford; Captain and Mrs. Tyler, Hartford; Capt. M. F.
Coughlin, Hartford; Capt. P. J. F.
Sullivan, Binghamton, N. Y.; Lieut.
Goodwin, U. S. A.; Storrs; Hon. Geo.
A. Hammond Putnam; Senator Higgins, South Coventry.

The Arrangement of the Drill Shed and Decorations.

The armory was a symphony of color, festooned with laurel and artificial roses and decorated with the American flags. The boxes on either side were brilliantly illuminated with electric globes and were neatly furnished with rugs and furnishings by the box parties occupying them. The decorating scheme was by P. D. Donahue. On the platform at one end of the drill shed was stationed Wheeler's American band.

The Arrival of Gov. Baldwin and Guests at Dinner.
His Excellency Governor S. E.

Baldwin and staff arrived at six o'clock and were received by the general committee and officers of Company L. They were escorted to the Hooker house, where dinner was served to the following guests:
